New Mexico is claiming 250,000. In second to the particular subject referred to since the establishment of the government. 1880 it had 119,596, an increase of 30 per cent, over the previous census year. It is not believed that its increase during the past ten years has been more than 30 pre cent., New Mexico being one of the political divisions which grow slowly, owing to the non-inviting character of a great majority of the people. The territory will make a good showing if it can muster 150,000 persons, or 100,000 less than its newspapers are claiming.

Utah's increase from 1850 to 1860 was at the rate of 258 per cent; from 1860 to 1870, 115 per cent., and from:170 to 1880, 65 per cent., the population in the year last named being i43,963. It will thus be seen that they may be counted by the census enumerthere has been a steady and almost abnormal increase in population, and at the same time a considerable decrease a wide discrepancy between the registrain the percentage of increase. There is every reason to believe that a similar order of things has prevailed during the past ten years, the percentage of increase falling to after the Senate passes the McKinley 50 if not below. On the whole their fences are in a deplorable condition. we do not believe the increase has been greater than 5 per cent. a year, which Wyoning's population in 1880 was 20,789, which was an estimated increase of 127 p.r cent., though no census was taken in 1870. Since 1880 nothing has bence, but nobody else seems to recognize in the territory to stimulate anything more than a normal growth of population. True, there are more ranches, but a few ranchmen cover a vast scope of country. If the increase has kept pace with that of the previous decade, the territory has done well—better, in fact, than men who are familiar with it will now concede. An increase of 127 per cent. would give a present population of 46,000, instead of 100,000 as claimed by the rovernor and some others who are booming statehood, and trying to make it appear that the territory has sufficient people to shades, vertiser to a place in the American sis-

THE HERALD really feels sorry for the politicians and newspapers of the western states and territories. The census enumerators will certainly prove them to be awfully had guessers or utterly reckless in their assertions.

"THERE are in this country 255 Repub ican dallies, with a circulation of over one thousand copies each, and 320 Democratic dailies of that class. Republican dailies have an aggregate circulation of one milion and a half, and Democratic dailies two millions and a half. The Republicans have 89 weeklies, with a circulation of over 11,000 each, and a combined circulation of two millions and a half, and the Democrats 1,346 weeklies, with a circulation of four and a quarter millions. The magazine that support the Democratic party have a circulation of nearly half a million, while those that support the Republican party even by indirection, have less than one hundred thousand." This is what was said by Assistant Post master-General CLARKSON, in his speech at Boston the other day, and which has subsected him to some criticism. It is pretty certain that the gentleman did not may the correct figures in the interest of the Democracy. His own politics puts that idea at rest. CLARKSON is a newspaper man, and has undoubtedly taken the trouble to ascertain the facts. He might have gone on and said in addition to having the most papers and these with the largest circulation the Democrats have the best newspapers. And then he could have The census that is now being taken will continued that the intelligence of the two parties stands in about the same propor

GREAT NORTHWEST

Should Not Fail to

It is neither finished nor fenced in, but a live, progressive .45 town, with every prospect of becoming a great city.

It is the permanent capital of the State of Idaho; lighted with electric lights; has provided for a system of electric stree railways; it is the handsomest little city in the mountain .10 country.

It is the seat of the United States Government Land $4.25 Offices, Assay Offices, Courts, and Mineral and Topographical 1.90 Surveys.

It is the centre of the richest mining district in the 1.45 northwest, and the flow of gold and silver is increasing year .25 by year.

It is the centre of the objective point of a great intermountain railway system. It will soon be said that "all roads lead to Boise.'
